No.17 of 2012

- (a) prohibit or control the use and development of land and buildings in the interests of proper and orderly development of its area;
- (b) control or prohibit the subdivision of land;
- (c) consider and approve all development applications and grant all development permissions;
- (d) ensure the proper execution and implementation of approved physical and land use development plans;
- (e) formulate by-laws to regulate zoning in respect of use and density of development;
- (f) reserve and maintain all the land planned for open spaces, parks, urban forests and green belts in accordance with the approved physical and land use development plans; and
- (g) consider and determine development planning applications made in respect of land adjoining or within reasonable vicinity of safeguarding areas.

57. (1) A person shall not carry out development within a county without a development permission granted by the respective county executive committee member.

Development permission.

(2) A person who commences any development without obtaining development permission commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months or to both.

(3) A county executive committee member shall require a person who has commenced a development without obtaining development permission to restore the land on which the development is taking place to its original condition or as near to its original condition as is possible and that such restoration shall take place within ninety days.

(4) Where a person who is required to do so fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (3), the relevant county executive committee member may undertake to restore the land as required and shall recover the cost of the restoration from the person required to undertake the restoration.

(5) A county executive committee member may revoke development permission if the applicant has contravened any provision of this Act or conditions imposed on the development permission for any justifiable cause.

(6) A county executive committee member may modify the conditions imposed on development permission where circumstances require it or for any justifiable cause.

58. (1) A person shall obtain development permission from the respective county executive committee member by applying for development permission from that county executive committee member in the prescribed form and after paying the prescribed fees.

Application for
permission.

(2) An applicant for development permission shall provide documents, plans and particulars as may be required by the respective county executive committee member to indicate the purposes of the proposed development.

(3) An applicant for development permission shall indicate the proposed uses to which the land shall be put, the population density to which that land shall be subjected and the portion of the land the applicant shall provide for easements as a consequence of the applicant's proposed development.

(4) Where an applicant is not the registered owner of the land for which development permission is being sought, that applicant shall obtain the written consent of the registered owner of that land and the applicant shall provide that written consent to the respective county executive committee member at the time of applying for development permission.

(5) The development permission granted by a county executive committee member shall be subject to compliance with the provisions of any other written law.

(6) Where an applicant does not receive written response for development permission within sixty days, such permission shall be assumed to have been given in terms of this Act.

(7) A person applying for development permission shall also notify the public of the development project being proposed to be undertaken in a certain area in such a manner as the Cabinet Secretary shall prescribe.

(8) The notification referred to under sub-section (7), shall invite the members of the public to submit any objections on the proposed development project to the relevant county executive committee member for consideration.

59. (1) A person applying for development permission shall ensure that any documents, plans and particulars that are provided to the respective county executive committee member while applying for development permission have been prepared by the relevant qualified, registered and licensed professionals.

Plans and documents to be prepared by qualified person.

(2) A person who purports to prepare a document, plan or particulars required under this Act shall prove that person's credentials when asked to do so by a county executive committee member and shall be required to authenticate the copies of the documents, plans or particulars provided to the county executive committee member in that person's name.

60. (1) Within seven days of receiving an application for development permission, the county executive committee member shall give a copy of the application to the relevant authorities or agencies to review and comment and the relevant authorities or agencies shall comment on all relevant matters including—

- (h) national security in respect of land adjoining or within reasonable vicinity of safeguarding areas; and
- (i) any other relevant authority.

(2) Within fourteen days of receiving the copy of the development permission from a county executive committee member, the relevant authorities or agencies shall submit their comments to the respective county executive committee member.

61.(1) When considering an application for development permission, a county executive committee member —

Decision making and communication.

- (a) shall be bound by the relevant approved national, county, local, city, urban, town and special areas plans;
- (b) shall take into consideration the provision of community facilities, environmental, and other social amenities in the area where development permission is being sought;
- (c) shall take into consideration the comments made on the application for development permission by other relevant authorities in the area where development permission is being sought;
- (d) shall take into consideration the comments made by the members of the public on the application for development permission made by the person seeking to undertake development in a certain area; and
- (e) in the case of a leasehold property, shall take into consideration any special conditions stipulated in the lease.

(2) With regards to an application for development permission that complies with the provisions of this Act and within thirty days of receiving an application for development permission, the county executive committee member may—

- (a) grant the applicant the development permission in the prescribed form and may stipulate any conditions it considers necessary when granting the development permission; or
- (b) refuse to grant the applicant the development permission in the prescribed form and state the grounds for the refusal in writing.

(3) An applicant or an interested party that is aggrieved by the decision of a county executive committee member regarding an application for development permission may appeal against that decision to the County Physical and Land Use Planning Liaison Committee within fourteen days of the decision by the county executive committee member and that committee shall hear and determine the appeal within fourteen days of the appeal being filed.

(4) An applicant or an interested party who files an appeal under sub-section (3) and who is aggrieved by the decision of the committee may appeal against that decision to the Environment and Land Court.

62. (1) Each county executive committee member shall maintain a register of documents submitted by applicants for development permission and shall issue a submission certificate to every applicant who submits such documents.

Registers.

(2) Each county executive committee member shall maintain a register of development permission and shall enter the details of each applicant for development permission, whether or not development permission was granted to that applicant and the details of the proposed project for which development permission has been applied for.

(3) A register maintained by a county executive committee member under this Act shall be open to the public for scrutiny and the Cabinet Secretary shall publish guidelines for public access to that register.

63. (1) A county executive committee member may levy a development fee against an applicant for development permission.

Development fees.

(2) Each county government may, by notice in the Gazette, publish Regulations determining the circumstances under which a development fee shall be levied, the rates that shall be payable and the circumstances under which a development fee may be waived.

(3) Where a development fee has been waived in relation to an application for development permission, a county executive committee member may require that applicant to develop infrastructure in relation to the property in question for general use by the residents of the area where the property in question is located.

64.(1) Where an applicant for development permission has been granted development permission but has not commenced the proposed project within three years of receiving the development permission that permission shall lapse.

Lapse of development permission.

(2) Despite sub-section (1), a county executive committee member, where an applicant makes an application, may extend development permission by a period of one year if the county executive committee member determines it is necessary or just to grant that extension.

(3) Where a county executive committee member extends development permission, it may impose further conditions on the applicant that he or she considers fit.

65. A county executive committee member may impose conditions or impose a fine to be prescribed in regulations on an applicant for development permission for building works where that applicant fails to complete the building works within five years.

Commencement and completion of building.

66. A licensing authority shall not grant a license for the commercial or industrial use or occupation of any building, or in respect of any premises or land, for which development permission has not been granted by the relevant county executive committee member.

Prohibition of grant of license for development of a commercial or industrial nature
