Amendment of Article 98 of the Constitution.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Constitution to give effect to the two-thirds gender principle through the creation of special seats that will ensure that the gender principle is realised in Parliament and further that the state takes legislative, policy and other measures including the setting of standards, to achieve the realization of the principle.

The Bill proposes to amend the Constitution as follows:

- (a) The Bill proposes to amend Article 97, on the composition of the National Assembly, by introducing a new paragraph (ca) in clause (1) to ensure that the composition of the National Assembly complies with the requirement that not more than two-thirds of its members are of the same gender. The new paragraph (ca) would require the election, through party lists, of the number of special seat members necessary to ensure that no more than two-thirds of the membership of the National Assembly is of the same gender.
- (b) The Bill also proposes to amend Article 98(1) of the Constitution, on the composition of the Senate, by inserting a new paragraph (da) to ensure that the Senate complies with the requirement that not more than two-thirds of its members are of the same gender. The new paragraph (da) would require the election, through party lists, of the number of special seat members necessary to ensure that no more than two-thirds of the membership of the Senate is of the same gender.
- (c) Further, the Bill introduces new clauses 97 (1A) and (1B) and 98 (1A) and (1B) which require the elections for the special seats to be undertaken in accordance with Article 90.
- (d) The Bill further proposes to amend Article 81 of the Constitution to require the state to take legislative, policy and other measures to ensure that not more than two-thirds of the members of elective public bodies shall be of the same gender. These measures would be expected to resolve the gender representation matter for all time.
- (e) Finally, to ensure that the enactment of this Bill does not affect the composition of the Twelfth Parliament, the Bill at clause 2 expressly provides that the proposed provisions shall apply to the general elections following the coming into force of the Act.

Dated the 30th July, 2019.

HAJI FARHIYA ALI,
Senator.

KILONZO MUTULA JUNIOR,
Senator.

Article 81 that the Bill proposes to amend—
