

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

THIRTEENTH PARLIAMENT – THIRD SESSION

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 2024 (AFTERNOON SITTING)

1. The House assembled at thirty minutes past Two O'clock.
2. The Proceedings were opened with Prayer.
3. Presiding – the Honourable Speaker.
4. COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

The Speaker issued the following Communication —

The Advisory from the National Treasury on measures of Supply and Ways and Means “Honourable Members,

You will recall that during today’s morning sitting, the Leader of the Minority Party, the Hon. Opiyo Wandayi, EGH, MP rose in his place and sought guidance on an Advisory from the Cabinet Secretary for the National Treasury and Economic Planning on the measures of Supply and Ways and Means currently being considered by the House.

The Hon. Minority Leader noted that the Advisory from the Cabinet Secretary was couched in the form of an unprocedural ultimatum to the House directing against amendment of the various revenue-raising measures contained in the Finance Bill, 2024. He concluded by requesting for the Advisory to be repudiated by the House as unduly anticipating debate on the Finance Bill, 2024 and as an affront to the budget-making mandate of the House.

Hon. Members, I did allow the Leader of the Majority Party, Hon. Kimani Ichung’wah, EGH, MP and the Chairperson of the Budget and Appropriations Committee, the Hon. Ndindi Nyoro, MP to make brief rejoinders on the issue before scheduling it for my guidance during this afternoon’s sitting.

Hon. Members, as I proceed to guide on the matter, I wish to first note that the Advisory referred to by the Minority Leader, though addressed to the Clerk of the Assembly, was copied to both my office and to the Chairperson of the Budget and Appropriations Committee. Contrary to the assertions made by the Minority Leader, the Advisory is not an unusual document. Members will note that every year, before the conclusion of the Budget Process, the Office of the Clerk seeks the views of the Cabinet Secretary responsible for finance on the options available to the House and its Committees to ensure a balance between the measures of Supply and Ways and Means under consideration by the House.

This is in keeping with the requirements of Article 114 of the Constitution on the consideration of Money Bills. The advice enables the House to ensure that the measures of Supply and Ways and Means that it approves in the Appropriation Bill and the Finance Bill adhere to applicable constitutional and statutory limits.

Hon. Members, As you are aware, under section 39A(4)(c) of the Public Finance Management Act, Cap. 412A, any recommendations made or resolution passed by this House on revenue matters must take into account the impact of the proposed changes on the composition of the tax revenue that the National Treasury is expected to raise.

Additionally, Hon. Members, under section 40(5)(c) of the Public Finance Management Act, the House is under an obligation to ensure that the total amount of revenue raised is consistent with the fiscal framework that it approved during the Budget process. During its consideration of budget proposals, the House must strike a balance between the Supply of monies that it appropriates for the national government and the Ways and Means of financing such expenditure. As ably expressed by the Leader of the Majority Party and the Chairperson of the Budget and Appropriations Committee, any negative imbalance between the Ways and Means and the Supply approved by the House ultimately results in a fiscal deficit. This deficit can only be addressed through borrowing, enhanced taxation or reduction of the Estimates of Expenditure. As Members will recall, any borrowing sanctioned by the House must strictly adhere to the threshold prescribed by this House in line with section 50 of the Public Finance Management Act and the principles outlined under Article 211 of the Constitution that cautions against overburdening future generations with unnecessary debt.

Honourable Members, all things considered, my reading of the Advisory from the Cabinet Secretary is that it constitutes a reminder to the House of its constitutional and statutory obligations. I do not view it as a directive in the manner argued by the Minority Leader. In the letter, the Cabinet Secretary reminds the House of the recent increase made to the estimates of expenditure when the House considered Supply Measures. The House is merely being urged to factor in this increased expenditure when considering the Ways and Means of financing the approved Supply. In its decision-making, the House is only bound by the Constitution and the law. The ultimate decision lies with the House.

I therefore find nothing untoward with the Advisory. Its contents may be used for the information of the Budget and Appropriations Committee, the Finance and National Planning Committee and House in plenary and during the Committee on the Whole while considering both the Appropriation Bill and the Finance Bill. The House is accordingly guided. I thank you!"
