3. The Proceedings were opened with Prayer said by the Speaker of the Senate.

4. CONVOCATION BY THE SPEAKER OF THE SENATE

The Speaker of the Senate conveyed the following communication from the Chair:

“Your Excellency Hon. (Dr.) William Samoei Ruto, CGH, President of the Republic of Kenya and Commander-in-Chief of the Defence Forces;

The Rt. Hon. (Dr.) Moses Wetang'ula, EGH, MP, Speaker of the National Assembly;

Honourable Members of Parliament;

Article 132 (1)(b) of the Constitution provides that the President shall address a special sitting of Parliament once every year and may address Parliament at any other time.

Article 132 (1)(c) of the Constitution further provides that the President shall, among others, once every year, report in an address to the Nation, all the measures taken and the progress achieved in the realization of the national values referred to in Article 10 of the Constitution.

In addition, Article 240 (7) of the Constitution requires the President, in his capacity as the Chairperson of the National Security Council (NSC), to report to Parliament annually on the state of the security of Kenya.

In this regard, the Chief of Staff and Head of Public Service, vide a letter referenced EOP/CAB.26/4A/VOL. IV/(178) dated 9th September 2024, informed the Speakers of the Houses of Parliament of the intention of His Excellency the President to address Parliament.

Consequently, and upon consultation, the address to Parliament by His Excellency the President was scheduled for today, Thursday, 21st November, 2024.

Pursuant to Standing Order 25 (2) of the Senate Standing Orders, I notified Honourable Senators of the place, date and time of today's special sitting vide Gazette Notice No. 14829, which was published in the Kenya Gazette on Friday, 15th November, 2024.

Further, together with the Right Honourable Speaker of the National Assembly, I notified all Members of Parliament and the general public of today's special sitting vide notices placed in 3 local newspapers yesterday, Wednesday, 20th November, 2024.

Accordingly, Honourable Members, this special sitting is properly convened.

I thank you.”

5. CONVOCAATION BY THE SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

The Speaker of the National Assembly conveyed the following communication from the Chair:

“Your Excellency, Hon. (Dr.) William S. Ruto, CGH, President of the Republic of Kenya and Commander-in-Chief of the Kenya Defence Forces;

The Rt. Hon. Amason Kingi, EGH, MP, Honourable Speaker of the Senate;
Honourable Members of Parliament;

Members of the Diplomatic Corps;

Distinguished Guests;

Ladies and Gentlemen;

Article 132(1) (b) of the Constitution requires the President to address the nation once every year and at any other time. Further, Article 132(1) (c) of the Constitution requires the President to once every year, report, in an address to the Nation, on measures taken and progress achieved in the realization of our national values.

Additionally, Article 132 (1) (c) (iii) of the Constitution provides that the President shall submit a report for debate to the National Assembly on the progress made in fulfilling the international obligations of the Republic.

In this regard, Hon. Members, by way of a Message to the House, His Excellency the President conveyed his desire to address a Joint Sitting of the Houses of Parliament today, 21st November 2024. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 22 of the National Assembly Standing Orders, by Gazette Notice No. 15327, which was published in the Kenya Gazette on 18th November 2024, and indeed as also notified to all Members and the general public by way of newspaper notification published on 20th November 2024, I gave Notice of this Special Sitting of Parliament to the Members of the National Assembly.

Accordingly, Honourable Members, this Special Sitting is properly convened.

Your Excellency, Honourable Members, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen,
