8. QUESTIONS AND STATEMENTS

a) Requests for Statements pursuant to Standing Order 52(1)

- i. Nominated Senator (Sen. Hamida Kibwana, MP) made a Statement on a matter of general topical concern, namely, the global observation of 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence (GBV), which commenced on 25th November, 2024 which is the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and will culminate on 10th December, 2024, Human Rights Day.

The Senator highlighted the campaign's purpose of urging collective action to eliminate GBV, which is both a human rights violation and an obstacle to gender equality and sustainable development. She stated that in Kenya, GBV prevalence is high, with over 38% of women aged 15-49 years experiencing violence, as per the 2022 Kenya Demographic and Health Survey. She also noted a sharp rise in femicide cases and the growing threat of technology-facilitated GBV, which has been affecting one in three women online.

The Senator emphasized the socio-economic and emotional toll of GBV on survivors and its broader impact on Kenya's development. She pointed out that the violence exacerbates inequalities in areas like education and employment while costing the economy billions annually. She proposed several measures to address GBV, including strengthening legal frameworks, amending laws like the Computer Misuse and Cybercrimes Act and integrating digital literacy into education. She also stressed the need for public awareness campaigns, expanded survivor support systems, and partnerships with technology firms to improve reporting and content moderation.

Finally, the Senator called for enhanced law enforcement, better data collection and a national database to track GBV cases. She urged the Senate to lead by enacting comprehensive policies, allocating resources and championing the rights of women and girls. The Senator encouraged all stakeholders to unite in eliminating violence against women, underscoring the need for collective responsibility to make Kenya a safer and more equitable society.

- ii. Nominated Senator (Sen. Hamida Kibwana, MP) made a Statement on a matter of general topical concern, namely: the recent visit to Kenya by members of UNITE, the Global Parliamentarians Network for Global Health, in partnership with Unitaid which was held from 25th – 27th November, 2024. She stated that the visit was focused on showcasing Unitaid-funded projects and explore how parliamentarians could use their voices to champion better health outcomes, advocate for more resource allocation to the health sector and build meaningful partnerships.

She highlighted that the delegation engaged with the Ministry of Health and visited health facilities in Makueni County and Nairobi City County, where they witnessed innovative solutions addressing critical health issues like cervical cancer, postpartum hemorrhage, and medical oxygen access, emphasizing their transformative impact on saving lives and improving well-being.

The Senator stated that the UNITE and Unitaid delegation held key discussions and the talks centered on the need for greater political commitment to health, particularly in ensuring equitable access to health tools. Unitaid's initiatives in Kenya were praised for their achievements, such as reducing cervical cancer mortality through innovative screening methods, improving postpartum hemorrhage management through training and partnerships, and providing cost-effective medical oxygen solutions for maternal and neonatal care.

The Senator underscored the importance of health partnerships and parliamentarians' roles in championing health equity and innovation. She implored upon lawmakers to increase health sector funding, strengthen legislative frameworks and actively engage in global health advocacy through networks like UNITE. She also commended the efforts of UNITE and Unitaid and emphasized the need for Unitaid to engage in sustainable collaborations so as to enhance healthcare systems and ensure all Kenyans receive quality healthcare.
