FOREWORD BY THE SPEAKER

I wish to take this early opportunity to thank Members of the National Assembly for their fervent endeavour to perform their constitutional duties in the House during the just concluded First Session. Notably, the earnest entry into service of the one hundred and fifty (150) new Members has not escaped the keen-eyed. The First Session has seen Members, both new and returning, exhibiting gusto and eagerness to engage in legislation, oversight and representation of the people. Indeed, I can attest to the realization of the ideals espoused in Articles 94 and 95 of our Constitution.

The National Assembly held its First Sitting on 8th September 2022 for the swearing-in of Members. The sitting commenced at 9.00am in the National Assembly Main Chamber presided over by the Ag. Clerk of the National Assembly. It is noted that three hundred and forty-seven (347) out of the three hundred and forty-nine (349) Members were sworn-in. The remaining two (2) Members, the Member for Isiolo North and Wiper Democratic Movement nominee, were sworn-in at a later sitting.

Notably, the House saw an increased female representation with the number of women Members elected in single constituencies increasing from twenty-three (23) in the 12th Parliament to twenty-nine (29) in the 13th Parliament. Additionally, the House saw a higher-than-before return rate of close to 57 per cent. This is compared to the 41 per cent transition rate between the 11th Parliament and the 12th Parliament. This may be evidence of greater performance by Members and which was acknowledged by the electorate.

I also note that there were twenty-one (21) political parties represented in the House. Save for two, the rest of the parties have aligned to either the majority or the minority parties as I guided in my Communication issued on 6th October, 2022. Four of these parties qualify to be parliamentary parties in line with our Standing Orders. We continue to empower and facilitate all the parties to ensure their participation in the business of the House.

It is recalled that after the General Elections in August 2022, the National Assembly undertook a number of activities to ensure the smooth take-off of the new Parliament. These preparatory activities included the orientation and induction of the new House, the swearing-in of Members as well as the election of the Presidium. The capacity-building exercises were found to be informative to not only the new Members but also to the returning Members. Arrangements will be made in the coming Sessions for more specialized and targeted engagements including for young MPs, Women, as well as Independent Members. It is hoped that these sessions will enable Members to fully undertake their constitutional roles.

Whereas the First Session was short, covering only three months, much of which was used to put in place arrangements for the conduct of business, the House was able to marshal key legislative tools during that period. Notably, twenty-four (24) Bills were introduced in the House with two (2), the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment)

Bill, 2022 and the County Governments Additional Allocations (No. 2) Bill, 2022 being passed. The primary object of the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (Amendment) Bill, 2022 was to amend the First Schedule to the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission No. 9 of 2011 to change the composition of the Selection Panel that oversees the filling of the vacant positions in the Commission to allow the Political Parties Liaison Committee and the Public Service Commission to nominate one member to the panel. Further, the County Governments Additional Allocations (No. 2) Bill, 2022 was a Senate Bill to provide for the additional allocations to county governments for the financial year 2021/2022. Additionally, there were ninety-five (95) Motions introduced and fifty-one (51) Petitions received. I laud all Members and the leadership of the House for their steadfastness during the period.

In conclusion, I take this opportunity to sincerely thank all Members of the National Assembly, the Clerk of the National Assembly, and the entire secretariat of the National Assembly Service for their support and commitment to our vision for a Democratic and People Centred Parliament. Indeed, we continue to toil 'For the Welfare of Society and the Just Government of the People.' I thank you.

THE RT. HON. (DR.) MOSES M. WETANG'ULA, EGH, MP
SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

PREFACE

This Report details the business transacted by the National Assembly during the First Session of the Thirteenth Parliament. The 12th Parliament (2017 - 2022) concluded its regular sittings on Thursday, 9th June 2022, paving the way for the 13th Parliament which commenced on Thursday, 29th September 2022. The First Session of the 13th Parliament was short, covering the months of September 2022 to February 2023, coming right after the 2022 general elections held on 9th August 2022.

During the First Session, the National Assembly held thirty-nine (39) sittings in line with the approved Calendar of Regular Sessions. The House also held one (1) Joint Sitting of Parliament on 29th September 2022, being the Official Opening of the 13th Parliament by His Excellency the President, Hon. (Dr.) William Ruto, CGH, President of the Republic of Kenya and Commander-in-Chief of the Defence Forces.

Notably, during the First Session, the House did not make any alterations to the approved Calendar.

“ninety-one (91) Motions were introduced, of which eighty-seven (87) were passed and four (4) were pending as at the end of the Session.”

At that time, the House was in its formative phase, hence the number of Sittings was also relatively few. Nonetheless, the Session saw the introduction of sixty-two (62) pieces of legislation that were processed to different stages. Additionally, ninety-one (91) Motions were introduced, of which eighty-seven (87) were passed and four (4) were pending as at the end of the Session. The House also considered two (2) sessional papers and processed eleven (11) Petitions and one hundred and twenty (120) Questions, among other legislative items of national interest, during the period under review.

The Report also covers various activities that occurred during the Session, including the orientation and induction of Members of the National Assembly, procedural questions that arose, decisions made by the House through resolutions on matters of national concern, and the adoption of national policies emanating from the Executive in form of sessional papers and statutory instruments. I hope that the content and information in this report will provide Members of Parliament, parliamentary staff, stakeholders, and the general public with critical information on the proceedings and activities of the National Assembly during the period under review.

I wish to take this opportunity to appreciate all officers for their team spirit and dedication during the First Session of the 13th Parliament. I wish you all a fruitful Second Session (2023).

SAMUEL NJOROGÉ
CLERK OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

CHAPTER 1 - INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

The National Assembly is established pursuant to Article 93 of the Constitution as one of the two Houses of Parliament. The membership of the National Assembly consists of:

- (a) two hundred and ninety (290) Members, each elected by the registered voters of single-member constituencies;
- (b) forty-seven (47) women, each elected by the registered voters of the counties, each county constituting a single-member constituency;
- (c) twelve (12) Members nominated by parliamentary political parties according to their proportion of members of the National Assembly in accordance with Article 90, to represent special interests including the youth, persons with disabilities, and workers; and
- (d) the Speaker, who is an ex officio Member.

Members of Parliament are elected in a general election conducted every five (5) years. The National Assembly of the Thirteenth Parliament was elected at the general elections held on Tuesday, 9th August 2022.

1.2 Transition from the 12th to the 13th Parliament

Prior to the election and subsequent swearing-in of Members of the National Assembly of the 13th Parliament, the House had adjourned Sine Die from Friday, 10th June 2022 which marked the end of the regular sittings of the National Assembly of the 12th Parliament. The Sine Die recess, which is an adjournment of the House without a definite date of resumption of sittings, ran from 10th June 2022 to 8th August 2022. This two-month intervening period was meant to accord an opportunity to Members of the House contesting for elections to participate in the campaigns in the run-up to the general elections. Members would also have time to conclude administrative processes in relation to the 12th Parliament, including clearance and handover of offices.

Following the General Election in August 2022, the First Sitting of the National Assembly was held on the 8th September 2022 at 9.00 am in the National Assembly Chamber, Main Parliament Buildings. The sitting was essentially convened to administer oath of office to the Members-Elect, and conduct the election of the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker. During the sitting 347 Members-Elect were sworn-in to the office of Member of Parliament of the National Assembly of the 13th Parliament.

Notably, during the First Sitting, two (2) Members-Elect were not sworn-in being the Member-Elect for Isiolo North and the Wiper Democratic Movement Party nominee under Article 97(1)(c) of the Constitution. The respective Members-Elect were sworn-in by the Speaker on Tuesday, 4th October 2022 and Thursday, 6th October 2022 respectively.

Additionally, during the same sitting, Rt. Hon. Moses Wetang'ula, EGH and the Hon. Gladys Boss, MGH, MP were elected as Speaker and Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly, respectively.

Prior to the first sitting of the House, the management of the House carried out various activities to ensure the full orientation of the Members-elect of the National Assembly.

The orientation, which took place on 25th and 26th August 2022, was aimed at ensuring that the Members-elect settle into their role in Parliament while availing them an opportunity to enquire on the operations of the House. Some of the specific activities undertaken included–

- (a) Initial registration and verification of documents including registration and capturing of Members-elect personal details, and counter-checking of ID Cards with IEBC Certificate and/or Gazette Notice to verify the identity of the Members-elect;
- (b) Presentation of CVs and Bio-data including receiving Members-Elects' CVs and Bio-Data Forms and signing of respective Bio-Data Forms;
- (c) Administration and Human Resources matters included obtaining and registering Members-Elect's bank and pension details; next of kin/beneficiaries' information and other related administrative information;
- (d) Medical insurance matters included disseminating medical information to the Members-Elect; registering them to the medical insurance scheme and the National Hospital Insurance Fund (NHIF);
- (e) Issuance of official badges, Standing Orders and official emails;
- (f) Chamber Orientation and Tour of Parliament Buildings including an overview of the general chamber procedures and etiquette such as attendance logging, bowing at the bar, crossing the floor, logging in for debate, procedure during debate, voting procedures and general Chamber information; and a guided tour of the Main Building.

1.3 Induction of Members

The Induction of Members of the National Assembly of the 13th Parliament commenced from 19th to 23rd September 2022. This exercise aimed to equip Members of Parliament with the necessary tools and knowledge to effectively execute their mandate. Members were split into breakaway groups for interactive sessions with the various directorates, where they were taken through the Speaker's Rules and Procedures of the House. The pivotal role of the various directorates in facilitating the National Assembly's operations was underscored. Importantly, Members were informed that law-making is a critical mandate, and they would be facilitated in drafting Legislative Proposals, Bills, Committee Stage Amendments and legal advice.

Furthermore, Members held a session on the Committee system to understand the Committee operations, including quorum issues, members contributions in committees and their expected legislative and oversight role as committee members, as well as avenues to explore while seeking to discharge their representative duties to their constituents.

1.4 First Sitting of the 13th Parliament

The first Sitting of the National Assembly of the 13th Parliament was held on 8th September 2022 commencing at 9.00am in the National Assembly Chamber. This followed the appointment of the day by H.E. the President Uhuru M. Kenyatta, CGH in accordance with the provisions of Article 126(2) of the Constitution. This notification was made vide Kenya Gazette No. 10527 of 5th September 2022 (Annex 2). By parliamentary practice, the only business conducted during the first Sitting of the House is the swearing-in of Members-Elect present, and the election of the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker.

The swearing-in of the Members-Elect and the election of the Speaker was presided over by the Acting Clerk of the National Assembly, Mrs. Serah M. Kioko, MBS. During the sitting, the Acting Clerk of the National Assembly:

- (b) laid on the Table of the House the list of names of three hundred and forty-eight (348) persons elected and nominated Members of the National Assembly as published in the Kenya Gazette by the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC) vide Gazette Notice No's. 9948, 10533 and 10537 of 23rd August 2022, 6th September 2022 and 7th September 2022 respectively;
- (c) presided over the election of the Speaker of the National Assembly; and
- (d) was the returning officer in the election of the Deputy Speaker.

The administration of the oath/affirmation of office to the Members-Elect was guided by the order of precedence as provided by Standing Order 3(2) which provided that precedence shall be given, in alphabetical order, to—

- (a) A Member-elect who has served in a House of Parliament as—
  - (i) Speaker;
  - (ii) Leader of the Majority Party;
  - (iii) Leader of the Minority Party; or

- (d) Members-elect with the longest cumulative period of service in the Senate;
- (e) Members-elect with the longest cumulative period of service in the East African Legislative Assembly;
- (f) all other Members-elect.

Notably, for general convenience, priority in administration of oath was accorded to Members with special needs. After the swearing-in of the Members-Elect present, the House was suspended from 2.55 p.m. until 3.40 p.m. before resuming for the election of the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker.

1.7 Election of the Speaker of the National Assembly

The Office of the Speaker of the National Assembly became vacant at the commencement of the First Sitting of the National Assembly on Thursday, 8th September 2022 at 9.00 a.m. in accordance with the provisions of Article 106 of the Constitution. In order to facilitate the filling of the vacancy, the Clerk of the National Assembly had, on 5th September 2022, notified the public of vacancy in the Office of the Speaker by vide Gazette Notice No.10529 and invited interested persons to apply for the position. The notification of vacancy was also advertised in local dailies of nationwide circulation on 6th September 2022.

While thirty-seven (37) persons collected nomination papers for election as Speaker, it is noted that as at the close of the nomination period, only nineteen (19) persons returned the respective nomination papers as required. Out of this number, fifteen (15) were found to not qualify as candidates for election as Speaker of the National Assembly as their nomination papers were not accompanied by names and signatures of at least twenty (20) Members-Elect supporting their respective candidatures as required. Additionally, two candidates, one Mr. Omar Dambi and one Mr. Isaac Aluoch Polo Aluochier withdrew their candidature prior to the election.

Further, two (2) candidates were disqualified after verification of documentation submitted in support of their candidature. It is noted that the documents submitted by a Mr. Thiangeta Fredrick Mukaria and a Mr. Okongó Mathew Erick Deya had glaring anomalies with regards to the identification details of Members-Elect alleged to have indicated support for the candidates.

At the end of the nomination period, the following two (2) persons qualified as candidates for election as the Speaker of the National Assembly—

- 1) Hon. Kenneth Otiato Marende
- 2) Hon. Moses Masika Wetang'ula

The two candidates were therefore duly nominated and cleared to proceed for election as Speaker of the National Assembly.

For a person to be elected the Speaker of the National Assembly in the first instance, he/she must be supported in a secret ballot by the votes of at least two-thirds of all the Members, being at least two hundred and thirty-three (233) Members. During the election held on 8th September 2022, the results of the first round of Balloting were as follows—

Candidate	Number of Votes
Hon. Moses Masika Wetang’ula	215
Hon. Kenneth Otiato Marende	130
Spoilt ballots	1
Total votes cast	346

Given that none of the candidates had garnered the requisite threshold of at least two-thirds of all the Members (233 votes), a second round of election was called. In the second instance, noting that there were only two candidates, the person to be declared duly elected as Speaker would be the candidate who would receive the highest number of votes on the second ballot.

However, prior to the commencement of the second round, the Acting Clerk received a written communication from one of the candidates, Hon. Kenneth Otiato Marende witnessed by the Member for Suna East, the Hon. Junet Mohamed, CBS, MP withdrawing from the election. In the circumstances, the Hon. Moses Masika Wetang’ula, EGH was declared duly elected as the 8th Speaker of the National Assembly after independence.

Figure 14: Rt. Hon. Moses Wetang’ula taking the oath of office as the Speaker of the National Assembly of the 13th Parliament

Muturi, EGH, standing at the bar of the National Assembly Chamber, handed-over the instruments of authority to the incoming Speaker, the Hon. Moses F.M. Wetang'ula, EGH, MP. The Hon. Muturi congratulated Speaker Wetang'ula on his election as the 8th Speaker of the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya after independence. He noted that the responsibility of guardianship of the authority of the House fell on the incoming Speaker and wished him well. He encouraged Speaker Wetang'ula to 'trust May and the House and to submit to the will of the Assembly' noting that as a self-regulating institution, the House had control of its activities and decisions made within the law. Hon. Muturi noted that Parliament had engaged highly skilled and experienced procedural and technical staff whose advice would be of great import to the running of the House. Returning to take the Chair, Speaker Wetang'ula marched from the Bar to the Table and was received by the Ag. Clerk of the National Assembly, Mrs. Serah Kioko, MBS.

2.4 Papers Laid

Papers are documents presented to a legislature by way of “laying on the Table”. The purpose of laying a paper is to formally make the information in the document available to the House and its Members, and to the public. In order to enforce the accountability of public undertakings, it is mandatory for government bodies to submit their annual reports and audited accounts for laying on the Table of the House.

Laying of Papers allows for the document to be considered by the House or a Committee of the House. When Papers by external bodies are laid in the House, they are committed to the relevant committees for consideration and reporting to the House.

Parliamentary papers fall into various categories including Papers laid before the House from external bodies, such as government departments and independent bodies, often in accordance with statute; and Papers reported to the House by Committees. Additionally, an individual Member of the House may lay a paper either in support of contribution during debate or in substantiation of a claim made by the Member in the House.

During the First Session, one hundred and thirty-nine (139) Papers were laid on the Table of the House by both the Leader of the Majority Party and Chairpersons of Committees.

2.5 Statutory Instruments

The Constitution mandates the National Assembly to delegate its constitutional law-making power to other agencies in the Executive to make subsidiary legislation. A Statutory Instrument is any rule, order, regulation, direction, form, tariff of costs or fees, letters patent, commission, warrant, proclamation, by-law, resolution, guideline or other statutory instruments issued, made or established in the execution of a power conferred by or under an Act of Parliament.

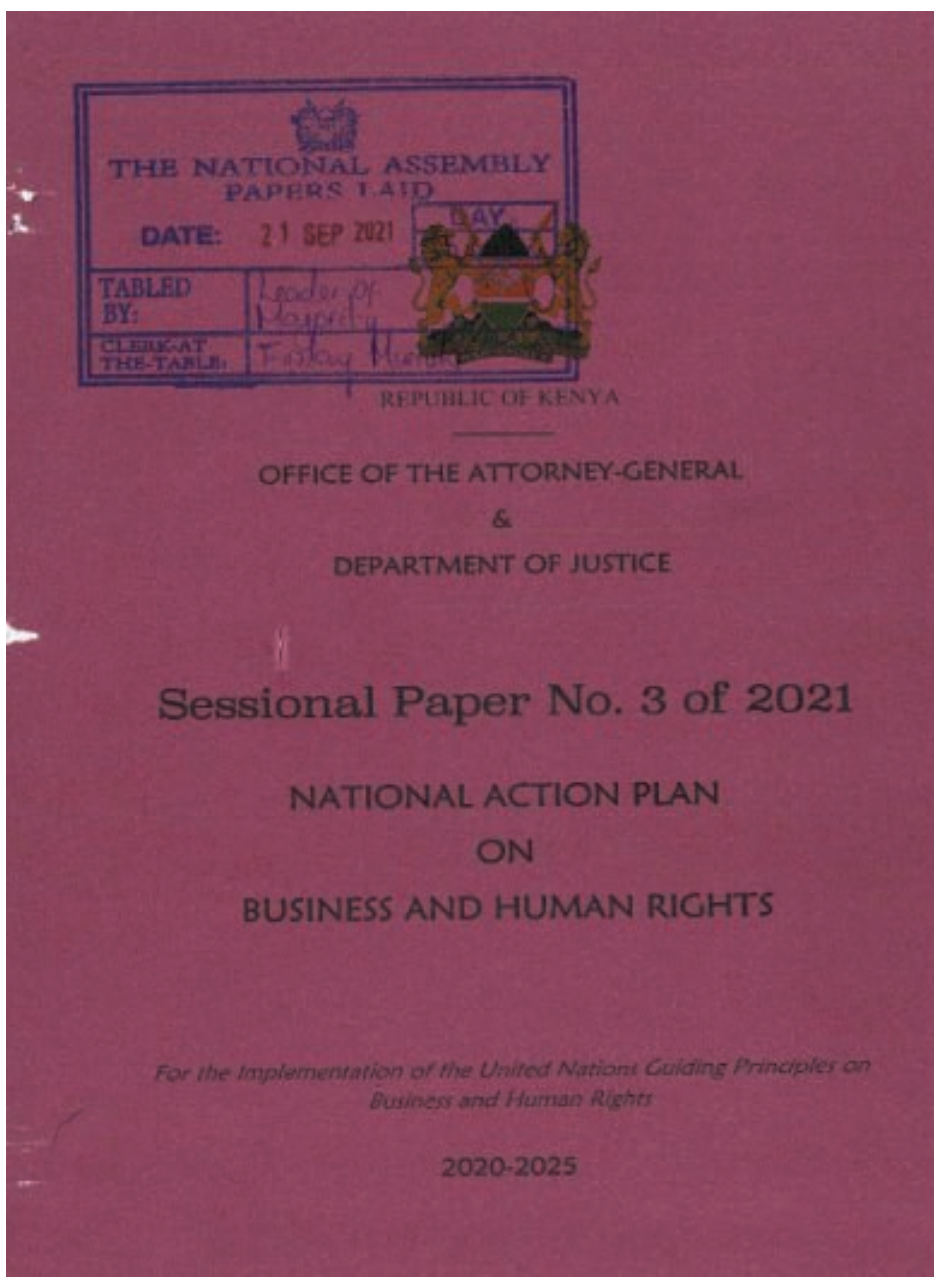

The Select Committee on Delegated Legislation considers the statutory instruments presented before the House. The committee reports to the House in the event it is not in agreement with any part of or an entire instrument. Where the Committee resolves that a statutory instrument be acceded to, the Clerk of the National Assembly notifies the regulatory making authority for implementation. Certain regulations require approval by the House before taking effect including the election related regulations and all regulations relating to public finance management.

During the First Session, the National Assembly received thirty (30) Statutory Instruments. Additionally, sixteen (16) Statutory Instruments were carried over from the Twelfth Parliament. As at the end of the Session, the National Assembly had approved twenty-one (21) instruments while nine (9) were under consideration.

3.8 The Directorate of Hansard and Audio Services

The Directorate of Hansard and Audio Services is mandated, under Standing Order 248, to facilitate parliamentary business by publishing a verbatim report of all proceedings of the House. Additionally, the Directorate is required to prepare the Hansard report on all proceedings of the House within forty-eight (48) hours. In cases involving collection of evidence before a committee, a Hansard report is required within seventy-two (72) hours.

The Hansard Report, a crucial reference publication, plays a significant role for Members of Parliament, Government ministries, and the public at large. Courts of law frequently consult the Hansard when interpreting Acts of Parliament. Moreover, the Attorney General refers to the Hansard when confirming bills for assent by the President. In instances where there is a critical matter in the House necessitating reference to proceedings before its' determination, the Speaker also refers to the Hansard Report of the particular proceeding when making a ruling.

In fulfilment of this mandate, the Directorate performed timely recording of plenary and committee sittings, transcription, editing and printing of Hansard Reports. The Directorate also assisted in the translation of legislative tools such as Motions, Questions, and Notices of Motions from English to Kiswahili and vice versa. During the Session, the Directorate published thirty-nine (39) Hansard reports of Plenary Sittings available at <https://tinyurl.com/2czye9f3> and recorded one hundred and sixty (160) committee sittings for transcription.

In furtherance of Strategic Pillar III on public trust, the Directorate actively contributed to the enhancement of parliamentary diplomacy. This was achieved by its participation in the 10th Commonwealth Hansard Editors Association-African Region (CHEA-AR) Biennial Conference held in Lilongwe, Malawi from 18th to 30th October 2022. The conference aimed to serve as a platform for the exchange of ideas and information among editors, fostering an environment where they could provide improved services to their respective parliaments.

(e) Brief on Costing of the Remuneration and Benefits for State officers

This analysis highlighted the cost implication of the third review of remunerations and benefits for State officers by the Salaries and Remuneration Commission (SRC). The State officers affected by the review include; State officers in the Executive of the National and County Governments, Parliament, Constitutional Commissions and Independent offices and those in County Assemblies.

(f) Brief on the Annual Performance Report for MSMEs Credit Guarantee Scheme FY 2021/22 Financial Year

The Directorate undertook analysis of the Credit Guarantee Scheme (CGS) status report for the fiscal year ending 30th June 2022. The report was submitted to Parliament on 6th October 2022, in accordance with section 59A of the PFM Act, which requires the Cabinet Secretary in charge of finance to prepare and submit a statement of credit guarantees to Parliament at least once a year. The brief included, among other things, an analysis of the total value of credit guarantees, the total value of credit guarantees liquidated, and the total value of outstanding credit guarantees as of the date of the report.

(g) Ad hoc Analytical Briefs on Sectoral issues on Budget

The Directorate received requests from time to time to conduct analyses on budget, the economy, and public finance. ## CHAPTER 4 - PROCEDURAL DEVELOPMENTS

4.1 Introduction

This Chapter details the procedural developments and other notable occurrences that were noted during the First Session of the Thirteenth Parliament. The main procedural developments included—

- (i) An Acting Clerk Presides over the First Sitting of the House; and
- (ii) Processing of Legislative Proposals to amend the Constitution.

Additionally, notable events in the First Session included: -

- (i) Reconsideration of Committee recommendation by the House on the appointment of a person as a Cabinet Secretary;
- (ii) Division during the consideration of a Special Motion for appointment of the 7th Clerk of the National Assembly;
- (iii) Elections of Members to East Africa Legislative Assembly;
- (iv) Election of Members to the Pan African Parliament (PAP); and
- (v) Recognition of an officer of the House ahead of retirement.

4.2 Procedural Developments

4.2.1 An Acting Clerk Presides over the First Sitting of the House

On Thursday, 8th September 2022, the inaugural sitting of the First Session of the National Assembly in the Thirteenth Parliament marked a historic moment for the management of the House. For the very first time, the proceedings were overseen by an Acting Clerk, Mrs. Serah Kioko, MBS following the retirement of the then Clerk of the National Assembly, Mr. Michael Sialai, CBS in July 2022.

The Standing Orders require that during the first sitting of the House, the Clerk shall preside and, among other roles, issue the notification of the President on the convocation of the sitting, table the list of names of persons elected as Members and administer the Oath or Affirmation of Office to Members-elect, oversee the election of the Speaker and act as a returning officer in the election of the deputy Speaker. Notably, any question arising in the House during this period is determined by the Clerk who exercises the powers of the Speaker.

Prior to the First Sitting of the House on 8th August 2022, a question had arisen as to the place of the Acting Clerk in the carrying out of the functions expected of the Clerk. It was observed that while the use of the title ‘Clerk’ within the parliamentary circles has clear and distinct meaning, nothing expressly bars the temporary holder of the office from performing the functions of the said office. Indeed, section 2 of the Parliamentary Service Act CAP.186 defines the Clerk as the Clerk of the National Assembly or of the Senate, as the case may be. Further, Section 2 of the Public Service Commission Act CAP. 185 of 2017 provides that—

“Acting appointment” means temporary conferment upon a public officer, by the Commission or the relevant appointing authority, the power to perform duties of a public office other than the office the officer is substantively appointed to hold, while the public officer continues to hold the substantive appointment”

It was therefore noted that an officer in acting capacity exercised the same powers as a substantive office holder. This authority extends to resolving any questions arising in the House during the interim period. The pivotal role assumed by the Clerk during the first sitting of the Assembly underscores the significance of the moment. Indeed, the Acting Clerk presided over the first sitting of the House including the swearing-in of the Members-elect as well as the election and swearing-in of the Speaker.

Also notable is the fact that for the first time in the history of the Parliament of Kenya, the first sitting of the House was presided over by a female Clerk of the House, Mrs. Serah Kioko, MBS.

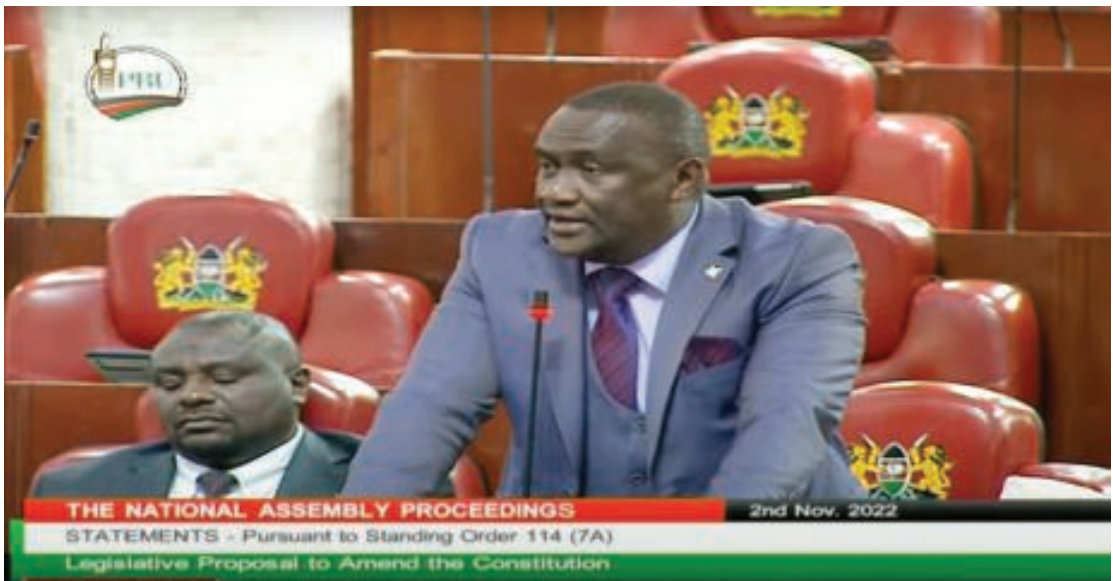

Figure 41: Mrs. Serah Kioko the Acting Clerk of the National Assembly presiding over the swearing-in of Members-elect

4.2.2 Processing of Legislative Proposals to amend the Constitution

Pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 114(7A), the Speaker of the National Assembly approved pre-publication scrutiny of a legislative proposal intending to amend the Constitution to entrench certain funds, among them the National Government Constituencies Development Fund, the National Government Affirmative Action Fund, the Senate Oversight Fund, and the Economic Stimulus and Empowerment Fund. The legislative proposal was co-sponsored by the Hon. Stephen Mule, MP, Member for Matungulu Constituency and the Hon. Githinji Gichimu, MP, Member for Gichugu Constituency.

The manner of amending the Constitution through parliamentary initiative is provided for under Article 256 of the Constitution. The process is actualized by Standing Order 114 (7A) which requires the proposal to be accompanied by the signatures of at least fifty (50) Members in support unless it is sponsored by the Leader of Majority Party or the Leader of Minority Party. After approval of the legislative proposal, the Speaker may allow the sponsor to make a statement on the objectives of the proposal and comments on the statement by Members. The Speaker may also invite Members with similar or related proposals to make submissions before the committee to which the proposal is referred.

The procedure for processing legislative proposals to amend the Constitution was informed by a High Court ruling that such a Bill cannot be amended once published. The significance of the procedure was to allow collation of as many views as possible from as many stakeholders and experts as may be practicable before publication. Following the attainment of more than the fifty (50) signatures by Members in support of the legislative proposal, the co-sponsors of the legislative proposal made a statement on Wednesday, 2nd November 2022 outlining the contents and objectives of the proposal and Members made comments. As at the end of the Session, the matter would be debated further in the next Session.

4.3 Notable Occurrences in the House

4.3.1 Reconsideration of Committee recommendation by the House on the appointment of a person as a Cabinet Secretary

During the Session, a procedural quandary emerged concerning processing a Special Motion on the Approval of the Appointment of Cabinet Secretaries, the Attorney General, and the Secretary to the Cabinet. In the sitting convened on Wednesday, 26th October 2022, the Motion presented to the House sought approval for the appointment of twenty-one (21) persons as Cabinet Secretaries, with Hon. Justin Muturi, EGH nominated as the Attorney General, and Ms. Mercy Kiiru Wanjau, CBS, proposed as the Secretary to the Cabinet. Additionally, the Special Motion aimed to reject the appointment of Hon. Peninah Malonza, OGW, as the Cabinet Secretary for Tourism, Wildlife, and Heritage.

The House passed the Special Motion thereby approving the appointment of twenty-one (21) persons nominated to the positions of Cabinet Secretaries, Attorney General, and Secretary to the Cabinet and disagreed with the Committee's recommendation on the rejection of the appointment of Mrs. Peninah Malonza. It was noted that the rejection of the proposed rejection of the Hon. Malonza did not in itself constitute an approval. Indeed, as guided by Speaker Marende in the 10th Parliament during approval of a nominee for appointment as the Chairperson of the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC), a decision of the House on an appointment ought to be clear and unequivocal. In this regard, the rejection by the House of a Motion proposing rejection of appointment of a nominee did not constitute an approval of the said nominee. Instead, it left the question before the House in 'purgatory', from which it could only be extricated through a fresh Motion framed in positive terms requiring the House to either approve or reject the nominee.

A similar incident was noted in the 12th Parliament when the House rejected a Motion on rejection of appointment of certain nominees as Commissioners of the Teachers Service Commission. Then, the House proceeded in the same manner as it did in the 10th Parliament. An introduction of a fresh Motion couched in the positive allows the House an opportunity to unequivocally make a decision on the proposed approval for appointment of persons to various State and/or public offices.

Drawing from the precedents in the 10th and the 12th Parliaments, the Speaker asserted that the House having negated the rejection of Mrs. Malonza meant the decision on her appointment as Cabinet Secretary remained unclear and unequivocal. It was therefore necessary that a fresh Motion, couched in the positive, be introduced to prompt the House to decisively determine the nomination of Mrs. Malonza for appointment as Cabinet Secretary. Consequently, the Member for Kitui County, the Hon. Irene Kasalu, MP, moved a Motion for the approval of Hon. Peninah Malonza as Cabinet Secretary for Tourism, Wildlife, and Heritage, which the House passed, duly approving Hon. Malonza’s appointment as Cabinet Secretary.

4.3.2 Division during the consideration of a Special Motion for appointment of the 7th Clerk of the National Assembly

The Clerk of the National Assembly is the administrative head of the National Assembly Service and serves as the principal procedural and legislative advisor to the Speaker and the House. Indeed, Article 128 of the Constitution establishes the position of the Clerk for both Houses of Parliament as offices within the Parliamentary Service. The Appointment to the office of the Clerk of a House of Parliament is made by the Parliamentary Service Commission (PSC), subject to the approval of the relevant House.

On Tuesday, 1st November 2022, the National Assembly deliberated and considered a Special Motion on the appointment of the Clerk of the National Assembly. The Motion was moved by the Member for Eldas Constituency and a PSC Commissioner, the Hon. Adan Keynan, CBS, MP, and seconded by the Member for Ainabkoi Constituency, the Hon. Samuel Chepkonga, MP.

During the Special Motion on the Appointment of the Clerk of the National Assembly, a roll call division was claimed and Members proceeded to vote, resulting in the approval of the Motion. Following the decisive resolution of the House on Tuesday, 1st November 2022, Mr. Samuel Njoroge was approved as the 7th Clerk of the National Assembly.

4.3.3 Election of Members to the East African Legislative Assembly

During the First Session, the House conducted the election of Members of the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA) in line with Rule 15 of the East African Legislative Assembly Elections (Elections of Members of the Assembly) Rules, 2017. The elections, which were held on Thursday, 17th November 2022, were presided over by the Clerks of the Houses of Parliament. The following persons were elected to represent Kenya:

Kenya Kwanza Coalition

1. Hon. Hassan Hassan Omar
2. Hon. Kering Zipporah Chesang Kurgat
3. Hon. David ole Sankok
4. Hon. Mwangi Godfrey Maina
5. Hon. Iman Falhada Dekow

Azimio la Umoja-One Kenya Alliance Coalition

1. Hon. Kalonzo Kennedy Musyoka
2. Hon. Odinga Irmgard Winnie
3. Hon. Kega James Mathenge Kanini
4. Hon. Shahbal Suleiman Said

In contrast to the previous elections, where candidates were permitted within the precincts of Parliament but not in the House, the election of Members to EALA in the First Session marked a precedent-setting development. During this Session, candidates were allowed into the Speaker's gallery of the House to observe the process. Furthermore, the Deputy Speaker extended an invitation for the EALA Members-elect (Kenya Chapter) to proceed to the Speaker's Row and receive congratulations from Members on the Floor.

4.3.4 Election of Members to represent Kenya at the Pan-African Parliament

At the beginning of every term of Parliament, Parliament considers a Motion on the appointment of Members of the Parliament of Kenya to the Pan-African Parliament (PAP) pursuant to Article 5 of the Protocol to the Constitutive Act of the African Union relating to the Pan-African Parliament. The PAP is intended as a platform for people from all African States to be involved in discussions and decision making on matters concerning the continent. It is based headquartered in Midrand, South Africa.

On Thursday, 3rd November 2022, the National Assembly approved the appointment of the following Members of Parliament to the Pan-African Parliament for a term of five years—

1. The Hon. Rahab Mukami Wachira, MP
2. The Hon. Joseph Kalasinga Majimbo, MP
3. The Hon. Esther Muthoni Passaris, OGW, MP
4. Sen. (Prof.) Margaret Kamar, EGH, MP
5. Sen. Danson Mungatana, MGH, MP

4.3.5 Recognition of an officer of the House ahead of retirement

In the course of the Session, a notable development unfolded concerning the acknowledgment of staff members serving in the House. On Thursday, 17th November 2022, the Honourable Speaker communicated to the House regarding the recognition of Mrs. Lucy Wanjohi, a Clerk-at-the-Table and Head of the Inter-Houses and Overseas Department in the Directorate of Legislative and Procedural Services, who was due for retirement. Mrs. Wanjohi, an advocate of the High Court of Kenya, had been a part of the Parliamentary Service Commission since 2003, initially joining as a Clerk Assistant III.

During the recognition, the Speaker allowed Members to make contributions, paying tributes, and extending good wishes to the retiring officer. Several Members expressed their tributes, including the Hon. Kimani Ichung'wah, MP, the Leader of the Majority Party; the Hon. Opiyo Wandayi, MP, the Leader of the Minority Party; the Hon. (Dr.) Robert Pukose, Member for Endebess Constituency; the Hon. Adan Keynan, MP, Member for Eldas Constituency; and the Hon. (Dr.) Rachael Nyamai, MP, Member for Kitui South Constituency. Notably, Mrs. Wanjohi established a precedent as the first officer serving in the House to be recognized upon retirement for her exemplary service to the National Assembly.

CHAPTER 5 - NATIONAL ASSEMBLY AND PARLIAMENTARY DIPLOMACY

Strategic Objectives 12 and 13 of the PSC Strategic Pillar III on Public Trust seek to strengthen parliamentary diplomacy, partnerships and linkages and to enhance parliamentary outreach and promote ideals of parliamentary democracy. To achieve these objectives, the National Assembly continues to actively participate in the activities of various inter-parliamentary organizations as part of its role in parliamentary cooperation and diplomacy.

Some of the inter-parliamentary organizations include the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CPA), the East African Legislative Assembly (EALA), Organisation of African Caribbean Pacific States - European Union (OACPS-EU) Joint Parliamentary Assembly, the Pan-African Parliament (PAP), the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU), the Forum of Parliaments of Member States of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region (FP-ICGLR), and Conference of the Speakers and Presiding Officers of the Commonwealth (CSPOC).
