ccxcviii) Statement on the business of the Senate for the week commencing Tuesday, 11th March, 2025.

(The Senate Majority Leader)

6. QUESTIONS AND STATEMENTS

a) Statements pursuant to Standing Order 52 (1)

- i. Nominated Senator (Sen. Hezena Lemaletian, MP) made a Statement regarding the state of security in Samburu County.

The Senator stated that on Thursday, 27th February 2025, along the Maralal-Baragoi road, armed criminals ambushed a public service vehicle, leading to the tragic loss of two lives and serious injuries to several others. He strongly condemned the attack, extended condolences to the victims' families, and wished the injured a swift recovery.

The Senator emphasized that this attack is yet another reminder of the persistent insecurity affecting Samburu County, particularly in Baragoi and its surrounding areas. He noted that for years, residents have lived in fear due to banditry, highway attacks, and livestock rustling, which continue to threaten their safety and economic well-being.

The Senator expressed concern that the Maralal-Baragoi road remains a dangerous hotspot despite numerous calls for enhanced security in the region. He criticized the failure to address the issue effectively, warning that this inaction has emboldened criminals and left innocent citizens vulnerable.

The Senator stressed that the people of Samburu deserve peace and the right to move freely without the constant fear of ambushes and killings. He urged that such attacks must not be normalized and reaffirmed his commitment to advocating for the security and well-being of his people.

Thereupon, the Senator called on the Ministry for Interior and National Administration, along with all relevant security agencies, to take immediate and decisive action. He urged the government to deploy additional security personnel, strengthen intelligence operations, ensure accountability for perpetrators, and implement long-term measures to eradicate banditry and highway insecurity in Samburu County.

- ii. Nominated Senator (Sen. Hamida Kibwana, MP) made a Statement regarding the commemoration of International Women's Day 2025.

The Senator highlighted the significance of International Women's Day (IWD) as a time to celebrate women's achievements and reaffirm the commitment to gender equality. She noted that this year marks 30 years since the Beijing Declaration and comes as Kenya prepares to review its progress at the 69th Session of the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW69). She commended Kenya's progress in advancing women's leadership, citing constitutional provisions, increased representation in governance, and key leadership roles held by women in government.

The Senator emphasized the impact of initiatives such as the Women Enterprise Fund, Uwezo Fund, and NGAAF in promoting financial inclusion. She also recognized the importance of laws protecting women from gender-based violence (GBV) and the establishment of support systems like gender desks in police stations and GBV recovery centers. However, she noted that challenges persist, including the incomplete implementation of the two-thirds gender rule, ongoing GBV cases, and economic disparities limiting women's access to resources and opportunities.

The Senator further outlined KEWOSA's commitment to advancing women's empowerment through targeted programs in education, health, leadership, gender equality, and digital innovation. She emphasized the need for adequate funding to support scholarships for girls, mentorship programs, access to quality healthcare, and protection against GBV.

The Senator urged the Senate to take decisive action by fully implementing the two-thirds gender rule, expanding financial opportunities for women, strengthening GBV response mechanisms, and amplifying women's voices in climate action and digital innovation. She concluded by emphasizing that true empowerment goes beyond representation and must translate into meaningful opportunities that drive transformation. Happy International Women's Day.

- iii. Nominated Senator (Sen. Hamida Kibwana, MP) made a Statement concerning the recent win by Bien Baraza as the best East African artist at the Trace Music Awards 2025.

The Senator celebrated Bien's achievement as a personal triumph and a proud moment for Kenya, showcasing the country's thriving creative and performing arts sector. His success highlights the power of dedication, creativity, and resilience, reinforcing the role of music in shaping cultural identity, inspiring the youth, and contributing to the economy. Competing alongside top East African artists, Bien's recognition demonstrates the potential of Kenyan musicians on the global stage.

The Senator emphasized the importance of platforms like the Trace Music Awards in promoting local talent, noting that such platforms empower artists to turn their passions into meaningful careers, strengthening the creative industry.

To further support the arts, the Senator urged the Government to increase funding, establish mentorship programs, and provide grants for young artists. She also called for stronger partnerships with platforms like Trace, the incorporation of arts education in schools, and the creation of art hubs and music academies to nurture young talent.
